

Need Paint Masks or Vinyl Lettering for Your Birddog Placards?

All the stencils are available from Mark Brink in El Cajon California. He has both Army and Air Force versions that have been refined, fine-tuned, and validated by some of the toughest customers in the world – California Birddog owners.

Specify Air Force or Army placarding (yes, the wording and alignment and sizes vary slightly from one branch to the other; be comfortable that McNamara's rolling in his grave) and, upon ordering, Mark Brink can send you a proof for your approval.

Costs were reported several years ago as around $250 for the full ship set, either paint masks or vinyl lettering. For placement on the plane, see Minard Thompson's "Lovable One-Niner" and its section on placard locations. Those drawings are indispensable.

Thanks to Dick Bunting and Monte Bowe for the up-front work.
